They Stand Alone.

Standing out in bold relief, all alone, and as a conspicuous example of open frank and honest dealing with the sick and afflicted, are Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, over-worked, debilitated, nervous, run-down, pain-racked women, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous remedy for weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness, all catarrhal affections whether of the stomach, bowels, kidneys, bladder, nasal passages, throat, bronchitis, or other mucous passages, also as an effective remedy for all diseases arising from thin, watery or impure blood, as scrofulous and skin affections.

Each bottle of the above medicine bears upon its wrapper a badge of honesty in the full list of ingredients composing it—printed in plain English. This frank and open publicity places these medicines in a class all by themselves, and is the best guaranty of their merit. They cannot be classed as patent or secret medicines for they are neither—being of known composition.

Dr. Pierce feels that he can afford to take the afflicted into his full confidence and lay all the ingredients of his medicines freely before them because these ingredients are such as are endorsed and most strongly praised by scores of the most eminent medical writers as cures for the diseases for which these medicines are recommended. Therefore, the afflicted do not have to rely alone upon Dr. Pierce's recommendation as to the curative value of his medicines for certain easily recognized diseases.

A glance at the printed formula on each bottle will show that no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs enter into Dr. Pierce's medicines, they being wholly compounded of glyceric extracts of the roots of native American forest plants. These are best and safest for the cure of most lingering, chronic diseases. Dr. E. V. Pierce can be consulted FREE, by addressing him at Buffalo, N. Y., and all communications are regarded as strictly confidential. It is as easy to be well as ill—and much more comfortable. Constipation is the cause of many forms of illness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, two a mild cathartic. All dealers in medicines sell them.

Crooks Robbed Bank Thieves.

District Attorney Stewart, of Pittsburg, Pa., has set a number of detectives at work gathering data regarding the places in which C. B. Wray, the late receiving teller, and C. S. Hixton, former individual bookkeeper of the Union Trust Company, spent their immense stealings from the big concern controlled by H. C. Frick and United States Senator Knox. It is hinted that more prosecutions will follow at once and that others may be sent to Riverside penitentiary to join Wray and Hixton, who were on last Saturday entered on the books there to begin their sentences.

The exact amount of money stolen by Wray and Hixton was $385,000. Of this sum it is not thought the teller and bookkeeper got a cent for themselves, as developments up to date show that the men were simply the unfortunate producers for crooks of every kind in Pittsburgh.
Once they had taken money from the bank to play in the bucket shops or in poker, the whole crooked world seemed to know it, and for them there was no stopping then. All sorts of crooked games were framed up for the young men, who plunged wildly, and their money was so plentiful that the sharks of Pittsburgh fairly fought over them.
Phony faro boxes, plugged roulette wheels, crooked games of poker and bad telegraph tips on the races were handed them, and on each and all they plunged to the limit. It is stated that the sharks, including the bucket-shop people, got it all.

Details of one poker game in which they dropped $10,000 have been made public. It was at a downtown hotel, and so anxious were the card sharps to get the "good thing" quick they framed up one hand at poker wherein Wray dropped $3,850, though he had what looked to him like a royal straight flush, the unbeatable hand at poker. Wray drew one card to the ace, king, jack and ten of diamonds and the card he drew was the queen of diamonds. One of the gamblers had not drawn any cards and bet viciously, and soon Wray had all his remaining money, $3,850, in the pot on his unbeateable hand. When the hands were shown Wray's opponent showed that the card which Wray had drawn was of a different pattern on the back from another deck. This made the hand foul and the gamblers raked in the pot, amounting to much over $7,000, with one pair of sixes.

Japan and the United States.
A dispatch from Tokyo says it would be difficult to overestimate the gravity of the situation caused by the anti-Japanese feeling that has been given voice in the United States. At a dinner Sunday night, attended by 150 prominent bankers and business men at the Imperial Hotel, deep feeling was expressed that America should regard with indifference acts that are tantamount to a declaration of racial war.

Little was said regarding the American protest against Japan's programme in Manchuria, the killing of Japanese sealers, the murder of the Japanese bank president in San Francisco, the attacks by John D. Rockefeller on Japan's commercial treaty, the Hawaiian exclusion policy, the public insults to Prof.
Omori, and Congressman Kaho's war threats, all of which incidents have occurred within three months, but the exclusion of Japanese children from the public schools of California cuts this child-loving nation to the quick.

There is evidence that the government regards the situation as extremely serious.
It has taken measures to calm the press and to discourage mass meetings that have been called to adopt retaliatory measures.

The whole attitude of protest against the Japanese in California and other Pacific coast States has arisen from the results of the complete unionization of all trades. Because the Japanese work on the railroads and pick fruit for less than the union wage, the cry of coolie labor has been turned from the Chinese against them. Throughout the interior valleys of California the Japanese have practically usurped the fruit picking field, because they work cheaper and are more reliable than white labor.

Gomper's Interrupted.

When Samuel Gomper's attempted to speak yesterday afternoon in the interests of the Independent League candidates at the West Side Auditorium in Chicago he was greeted by cries of "anarchist" and by vile names, and was forced to leave the platform after several scenes of disorder had been enacted.
Serious bloodshed might have occurred had not the labor leader displayed cool judgment and given up the fight when he saw he was defeated.

Gomper's had scarcely begun when one of the auditors classified him as "anarchist" in tones which penetrated to every corner of the hall. A spirited passage at arms followed. There was a demonstration, and the movement to eject the opposition was arrested only when Mr. Gomper's brought his adher-ents to allow them to remain. Then be-and Tar opens the bowels and drives the cold

WOMAN

"Woman" is the name of a new magazine for women. The first number is just issued. Your newsdealer has it. You can get it from him, and it is worth your while getting it. There is nothing startling about this magazine. There should be nothing startling about a decent magazine for women and the home. But this particular magazine is unique among all the so-called publications for women. You might not like it a little bit, and then, again, it might hit your fancy good and hard.

If you like fiction—good, wide-awake, snappy stories—both serials and short stories—you will like "Woman." In fact, fiction is the big feature of the magazine.

All the other magazines for women are cast on the same model—a little bit of fiction, a few articles, more or less chit chat, some wise advice, a fashion department and a smattering of general miscellany. "WOMAN" doesn't look any more like this conventional model than a yellow dog looks like a race horse. It is built on new lines for a strictly woman's publication. To know what it is like you will have to get a copy of it. It would cost too much to tell you all about it in this advertisement.

The price of "WOMAN" is TEN CENTS A COPY, and the magazine is a very big one—192 pages.

By the way, two rattling good serial stories begin in this first number and it contains a big lot of other good things. You would do well to ask your dealer for it before his supply is exhausted.
